

Viral Scary Conspiracy Story – Master Template

Purpose

This template is designed to create 1-minute long scary conspiracy stories written in a dramatic, suspenseful, and easy-to-understand style, perfect for text-to-speech narration and short-form viral content.

Start:

Create me a unique scary story that when i put into text to speech should be around 1 minute long and base it off of a conspiracy story : make dramatic suspenseful interesting viral

Instructions for AI:

Writing Rules

- Length: ~120–160 words (≈1 minute narration speed).
  - Tone: Dark, mysterious, cinematic.
  - Style: Conversational narration (like someone revealing a hidden truth).
  - Complexity: Simple vocabulary, short sentences, easy for all audiences.
  - Structure: Start with a strong hook, build tension, reveal chilling details, end unresolved.
  - Theme: Must feel like a real conspiracy (government cover-ups, strange sightings, missing reports, unexplained events).
  - Ending: Leave the viewer unsettled with a haunting or unresolved final line.
-

Story Format

Use timestamps for pacing. Example structure:

00:00:00 → Hook / Introduction

- Strong opening claim.
- Example: "This is a true story. In the 1970s, dozens of children reported the same terrifying figure."

00:00:05 → Strange Event / First Sightings

- Introduce the main conspiracy element (mysterious figure, object, or event).
- Describe what people saw, heard, or experienced.

00:00:12 → Suspense / Authorities' Reaction

- Show how police, media, or officials dismissed it.
- Example: "They called it mass hysteria. But then people started vanishing."

00:00:20 → Twist / Escalation

- Add creepy details, disappearances, cover-ups, secret files, etc.

00:00:30 → Conspiracy Layer

- Suggest that it was bigger than anyone realized (government denial, multiple sightings across states, hidden documents).

00:00:40 → Final Chilling Details

- Give one unforgettable image (the creature's eyes, the sound of breathing, a vanishing figure, strange lights).

00:00:50 → Unresolved Ending

- Close with a haunting line.
  - Example: "To this day, no one knows who he was. But people still see him... watching."
-

✓ Example Story Hooks You Can Reuse

- "This is a true story. In the late 1960s, entire towns reported seeing black helicopters with no markings."
  - "In 1982, a group of hikers vanished in the Rocky Mountains. All that was found were their cameras—every photo blurred."
  - "Locals still whisper about the white van that circled playgrounds. Always gone before police arrived."
  - "For years, people swore they saw men in black standing outside their homes, only to vanish when approached."
-

✓ Checklist Before Finalizing

- ✓ Keep it under 1 minute
- ✓ Make sure the ending leaves mystery
- ✓ Use visual details (what it looked/sounded like)
- ✓ Avoid explanations—leave it open-ended
- ✓ Keep narration smooth and eerie

Second prompt :

"From this point forward, I will provide short sentences, and you will transform them into detailed image prompts in an illustrated, cartoon-horror style featuring bold outlines and exaggerated expressions."

End

To create another story just past this template prompt again